Dear Frank:

I have delayed replying to your letter of 4 June until I could give you some concrete information regarding your future status with [REDACTED]. As I indicated in a teletype message to Julian yesterday, we have received permission to appoint you temporarily to the staff in [REDACTED] pending the completion of the security investigation. I do not anticipate any difficulty in your passing the security check, and once that clearance has been given, we will change your status from temporary to permanent. 25X1A8a

The appointment will be at CAF-11 since that is the only available vacancy at the moment in our I/O for the Pacific. As far as your immediate duties and responsibilities are concerned, I am leaving that entirely up to Julian.

I am very pleased that you are finally on the staff, Frank, and hope you will be happy in present and future assignments. I am quite anxious to get a look at the [REDACTED] setup in [REDACTED] and hope to come out there sometime this fall. 25X1A6a 25X1A8a

Give my best to Beth and Allerton.

Sincerely,

25X1A9a
